We wish to thank our customers and friends for helping to make our first year as a partnership a success. We faced many changes, but even more are bought TEN acres at S.W. 74th and Council Road in Oklahoma City. He will be building a new home there this spring and then we will have the mammoth task of moving all the stock from the Libby garden to the new garden this summer. Consequently, the Libby garden will have to be CLOSED TO THE PUBLIC this year. Personal tours can be arranged by calling him at work at (405) 521-3314 or at home at (405) 947-2165. The Blanchard garden will be open as usual, located at 110 North Harrison (½ block south of the APCO station, just off U.S. 62). Phone: (405) 485-3302.

This was the year for awards. Paul won his first Best in Show with DEMON, 5 runnersup in the 4 shows entered, 1 Silver Medal and 3 Bronze Medals. Perry, entering 5 shows, won no Best in Show (for the first time in a LONG time!), but had 3 runnersup and a Bronze Medal. He also won Best Seeding with EVERLASTING LOVE and Best Seeding in two shows with D-10 (an apricot from Cream Taffeta X New Moon). ECS were also won with CUBAN CUTIE, JADE MIST, and PRIDE OF OKLAHOMA (the red sib to BLAZING SADDLES to be released in '80, which was entered at the National Show in San Jose). Perry's first introduction, CARRIE KOLB, won Best in Show in Tulsa, entered by Burdella Rhodes. His first HCs were won with BLAZING SADDLES and JADE MIST.

MOUNT OF OLIVES, introduced last year, was withdrawn. To be perfectly frank, it flopped, and we refuse to introduce anything we don't think worthy. We are anxiously looking forward to the first year bloom in the Tulsa convention gardens, and plan on making as many trips as possible and helping in every way we can. Should you come to Tulsa for a sneak preview, we encourage you to visit our gardens also. We are only 2 hours from Tulsa. Enclosed in the price list is a list of those limited in stock. If interested in a particular variety, write and we may be willing to quote you a price. In addition, we also occasionally trade, so write if interested.
